

Rights and Reproduction Image and Article Price List

(March 2017)

Conditions governing the use of reproductions provided by the Chicago Defender Newspaper Archives will be specified by a written contract created by the Archives/Copyright Department. Rights granted by the Newspaper are valid only upon the Newspaper's receipt of the signed contract and payment of the full amount specified.

The reproduction charges are a total of three fees - a Research Fee (if applicable), a Use Fee and a Production Fee.

The Archives reserves the right to charge additional special fees depending upon the request use. All prices are subject to change.
